

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I am opposed to further loosening of rules that promote and protect diversity in media ownership. These rules were adopted to provide the public with diverse viewpoints through the media, and not just the opinions of a handful of conglomerates.

The cable ownership cap is a critical element of our democratic media, and must not be weakened. In fact, stronger action needs to be taken to divest existing concentrated ownerships of their holdings.

Democracy depends on multiple voices, not two or three.